Key Factors That Enabled This Firm to Rank as a Top 2016 Wealth Advisory Company

Below are key factors that enabled RTD Financial Advisors, Inc. to rank as a top 2016 wealth management firm in Pennsylvania.

Open, Transparent Fee Structure:

RTD carries all the features that we look for in top financial advisors in Philadelphia. Namely, it is fiduciary, independent, and operates under an open, transparent payment structure.

And it's that structure in particular that makes RTD unique.

While providing fiduciary duties to clients, RTD uses a very unique (among its peers) definition of what constitutes a fiduciary obligation; it's one that goes far beyond the letter of the law in demonstrating a responsibility to openly discuss points of potential conflicts of interest, such as advising a client on whether to pay off a mortgage early, which could cause a depletion of funds under the advisors' management.

Because of such inherent potential for conflicts of interest, RTD has chosen a compensation model that is based on a flat retainer fee, where the client's fee is adjusted every three years instead of based on the assets under management.

This differs significantly from other fee-only advisors who charge based on the value of assets under their management.

RTD utilizes this model for four primary reasons:

- It reduces conflicts of interest: Firms that operate on a percentage-based scale would see their bottom line decrease if a client chose to move money from their investments with that firm elsewhere (say, to pay off a mortgage or purchase a business). RTD sees this as a conflict of interest: your money should work for you, not for them. That is why RTD implements a flat retainer fee based on a transparent scale.
- It emphasizes holistic financial planning: By charging a flat retainer, RTD can ensure that all of its services are accounted for within your personalized financial plan. Firms that charge a percentage of AUM do so regardless of whether or not you receive multifaceted wealth management advice. A flat fee gives you more bang for your buck.
- It pays advisors for what they can control: Obviously, increases in the market cannot be controlled by advisors. However, it's very common for financial advisors to benefit from market increases despite their inability to influence the market. RTD feels that a percentage of AUM in these instances creates a conflict of interest in the advisor's fee structure. Conversely, a flat-fee structure guarantees that you won't face such conflicts with your RTD advisor.
- It de-emphasizes risky asset allocation: Since RTD doesn't earn more when your portfolio does well, it avoids the conflict of interest from excessively risky investments. RTD doesn't stand to reap a windfall if a risky investments pay off. To that end, it recommends investments that protect your wealth and grow it safely over the long-term.

RTD's fees (also pasted below) can be viewed on the fee structure page of its website.

Financial Life Planning Fees

Our fee is a flat quarterly retainer based on the following schedule:

Net Worth	Quarterly	Annual
Under $1,000,000	$2,500	$10,000

PLUS, for each additional amount of Net Worth* (if applicable):

Net Worth	Additional Net Worth	Additional Fee
		Quarterly	Annually
FROM $1 million to $3 million	$200,000	$250	$1,000
FROM $3 million to $10 million	$250,000	$250	$1,000
FROM $10 million to $20 million	$500,000	$250	$1,000
ABOVE $20 million		Negotiable	Negotiable

These fees are based on the Net Worth* at the time of the engagement and may be adjusted at the end of three years and every three years thereafter based on Advisor's formula at those times.

Learning About You to Make Your Plan Personalized:

RTD advisors strive to create a financial plan that addresses what they see as the three biggest areas of your life. These include:

- Heart's Core: your core values
- Ought To: your responsibilities and commitments
- Fun To: your goals and dreams

To map out a customized approach that addresses these concerns, your RTD advisor walks you through a three-step process of financial planning, which includes the following:

- Discover: True to its name, this stage involves your RTD advisor getting to know you. They learn who you are, what you want to do with your wealth, your goals for family or business, and so on. Considerations, such as cash flow, financial health, taxes, and insurance, among others, are included.
- Plan: After the Discover phase, your advisor builds your plan. Every possible consideration is included during the plan's construction, all with an eye toward making your financial goals, both short- and long-term, a reality.
- Live: As simple as it sounds. Once you and your advisor agree on the specifics of your plan, it is finalized and implemented. You then get to experience life to its fullest. No worrying about whether you're adequately preserving your wealth or on-track to meet your goals.
